

Community Action Partnership of Riverside County RivCo IDA Fact Sheet

Demographics

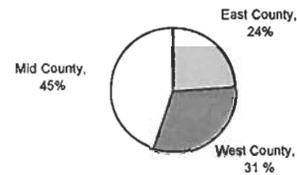

Economic Leveraged Multiplier 4:1 12:1 88:1

Participant Profile

	Gender	Single HH	Married w/kids	Single, no kids
Male	16%	0%	11%	5%
Female	84%	59%	17%	8%

Geographic Location

Funding Sources

Federal Funds from US Department of Health and Human Services
$1,103,500.00*
Requires 100% local match

Local funding partners include:

- Altura Credit Union
- Citibank
- City National Bank
- City of Riverside
- Guaranty Bank
- PFF Bank & Trust
- Riverside County Economic Development Agency
- St. Thomas the Apostle Catholic Church
- United Way of the Inland Valleys
- Washington Mutual Bank

Amount listed represents four (4) rounds of funding*

Participant Outcome Goals

Community Action Partnership expects IDA program participants to be able to achieve at least six (6) of the following nine outcome objectives:

- Plan for their financial future
- Save a portion of their earned income
- Maintain housing costs without undue strain on family finances
- Become economically self-sufficient and no longer require public assistance
- Pay bills on time and maintain a good credit rating
- Maintain permanent, stable employment
- Develop a strong social support network
- Physically participate in community life
- Develop positive problem-solving skills