As the new Program Director for Employment Services for the Lutheran Social Services of the National Capital Area, Mr. Sy oversees LSS/NCA employment programs in Maryland and Virginia. Prior to taking over that position, he was the Program Coordinator for the Baltimore office. A graduate of the University of Dakar (Senegal), Mr. Sy holds a Diploma of Advanced Studies in Egyptology, a Master's in History, and is currently working on a Ph.D. in Egyptology. A former refugee himself, Mr. Sy has worked as a Researcher, Language Consultant, and Reception and Placement provider. He speaks eight languages, seven of them fluently, and is a member of the Maryland Governor's Commission on African Affairs and the Social Services Committee.
