

Cook Inlet Tribal Council, Inc.

2GEN in Tribal Communities

OFA Regions IV-VIII Tribal Technical Assistance

May 4, 2016

COOK
INLET
TRIBAL COUNCIL

People. Partnership. Potential.

Holly Snowball Morales

Director of Employment and Training

Cook Inlet Tribal Council (CITC)

- Tribal nonprofit organization
- Serving Alaska Native and American Indian people

Our Service Area

Our Services

- educational services
- employment and training service
- child and family services
- recovery and re-entry services

Our People

- common heritage, language and way of life
- multicultural families, speak English live in cities
- More diverse in how and where we live, how we look
- Linked by strong family connections, shared heritage, cultural values

Our Mission & Vision

Our Mission

To work in partnership with Our People to develop opportunities that fulfill Our endless potential.

Our Vision

We envision a future in which all Our People—especially Our youth, the stewards of our future—have access to vast opportunities, and have the ability, confidence, and courage to advance and achieve their goals, infused with an unshakeable belief in Our endless potential.

CITC 2Gen Approach

The Beginning

- Common Intake – participants meet with Intake to identify immediate needs and services available for the whole family
- Tribal Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF)
 - Job Coaches, Intensive Case Managers, Youth Case Managers
 - Services the entire family, places emphasis on success of both parents and children
- Early Head Start/ Child Care Partnership
 - Train Tribal TANF Parents to earn CDAs to work in Child Care Center
- Health Professions Opportunity Grant– participants working on basic literacy skills will have access to quality preschool at the same location.

CITC 2Gen Challenges

Creating Solutions

Some of the challenges that CITC faces when trying to implement this approach:

- Restrictions on funding
- Lack of funding
- Disproportionate Statistics
- Tribal Voice

Creating Opportunities

The Future

- Journey Ahead- demonstration grant to integrate community into youth programs.
- Community Partnerships- Creating collective impact models with partners across the state of Alaska to create statewide impact.
- Tribal Partnerships- tribes need partnerships across both Indian country and non-tribal.

Our Motivation

Why 2Gen is Important

- Increased self esteem and cultural identity
- Increased self sufficiency
- Increased health and stable families
- Increased equity and social justice

We invite you to learn more :

citci.org

Quyana

