

Identify Your Contacts

Worksheet

BUILDING SOCIAL CAPITAL

Use this resource to identify quick and easy ways to organize your own social capital. Now, a job can be at your fingertips through friends. Utilize this tool to reach your network and land the right job!

THREE STEPS FOR USING YOUR SOCIAL CAPITAL

Step 1: Identify your contacts

Complete your list of 30. Remember, your friends want to help you, so let them.

Step 2: Determine the best way to contact each person

Are they social media or face-to-face friends? Do they prefer texts or phone calls?

Step 3: Create an action plan to reach out

Develop a schedule to reach out to all 30 of your contacts

List 30 people, groups, businesses or organizations that you can get in touch with by phone, email, social media or a face-to-face meeting. The more people who know you are looking for a job and the kind of position you are seeking, the better your odds are of finding the right job!

INCLUDE CONTACTS FROM EACH OF THESE AREAS:

- Phone Feedback
- Facebook
- Friends and Family
- Neighbors
- Former or Current Coworkers and Supervisors
- Vocational Schools and Colleges
- Social Groups and Clubs (Including internet sites/online groups)
- Professional Associations and Memberships (Including internet sites/online groups)
- Children's Contacts (PTA, Little League, Scouts, other parents)

