The screenshot displays the 'Level 3 Conference Controls' window. On the left, there are three stacked panels: 'Participants' (showing 'Web 1 - Hands Raised: 0' and 'Chairperson (Presenter)'), 'Audio Controls' (with 'Start My Audio Meeting' button and phone numbers), and 'Chat' (with a text input field and 'Send' button). The top of the window features a toolbar with icons for 'Start Meeting', 'Record Meeting', 'Share Desktop', 'Share Applications', 'Grant Control', 'Invite Others', 'Options', and 'Help'. The main area shows a presentation slide titled 'Level 3' with the text 'Manage Connections, Meet Remotely'. At the bottom, there are navigation buttons for 'Previous', 'Next', and 'Full Screen', along with 'Markup Tools'.

Use the “Chat Box” in the lower left corner of your screen to submit questions to the presenters.

To ask a question, simply type into the ‘text messaging box’ as seen below and then press send.

Technical Assistance

About Technical Assistance Requests

The OFA Peer Technical Assistance Network offers services to local*, State, County, and Tribal social service agencies that operate a Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program or provide services to TANF families. Some of the Peer TA Technical Assistance (TA) methods include:

- Peer-to-peer roundtables
- Site visits
- Workshops
- Moderated teleconferences
- Environmental scans/annotated bibliographies
- Literature reviews

What happens after you submit a Technical Assistance Request?

TA requests are jointly reviewed by the Peer TA Network and the Administration for Children and Families (ACF).

OFA Peer TA Technical Assistance Review Criteria \(PDF - 10.4 KB\)

*A community-based organization (CBO) is eligible to receive TA by partnering with its local TANF agency. The TANF agency must submit the TA request on behalf of the CBO, and the request must be mutually beneficial.

How to use the Resource Library

Peer TA's library includes a variety of Resources/Reports, Question and Answers, and Innovative Programs. You can filter by each one of these types of resources by clicking on the left.

- Resources include Peer TA and other OFA technical assistance event reports and materials and resources from stakeholders with research on the TANF program and low-income families. We also include research from the Self Sufficiency Research Clearinghouse.
- Questions and Answers are submitted by TANF stakeholders around the country designed to facilitate the process of information-sharing regarding important topics related to TANF programs and low-income families.
- Innovative Programs refer to creative methods of administering the TANF program, imaginative ways that services are provided, or new means of helping TANF participants with multiple barriers. The topic area includes Innovative Programs that have been submitted by other States.

There are two methods to find materials in the Peer TA Library.

1. Keyword Search

- a. To conduct a keyword search, simply type a title, or keyword into the search box and click on the blue arrow. The number of results and the terms searched will display above the filters on the left hand side of the screen.

2. Filter Search

- a. Users can also find materials in the Peer TA Library by selecting one filter, or a combination of filters. You can filter the Peer TA Library by topic, subtopic, date, the type of content, geographic area (urban, rural, suburban; ACF region; State/Territory; city/county; Tribe). The number of results and the filter used will display on the top of the left hand navigation bar. If you would like to further refine your search, you can select an additional filter. You can combine as few or as many filters as you would like to search for items in the Peer TA Library.

For further assistance locating materials in the Peer TA library, please contact us at peerta@icfi.com⁶³. Finally, if you would like to submit materials for inclusion in the Peer TA Library, please also email us at peerta@icfi.com⁶³.

The Office of Family Assistance offers free, self-directed online training modules on topics related to Tribal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program basics and Tribal TANF data management. Each module includes links to other topical resources as well as interactive questions to help participants assess their understanding of the content.

Tribal TANF Data – The Basics

The "Tribal TANF Data – The Basics" online learning module is intended for new Tribal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) staff or any individual interested in learning more about Tribal TANF data reporting. The module uses step-by-step instructions and screenshots to describe the background of Tribal TANF data collection and submission, the process of installing data reporting software, steps for submitting quarterly TANF data reports, and an overview of how tribes calculate work participation rates (WPR).

Tribal TANF – The Basics and Beyond

The "Tribal TANF – The Basics and Beyond" online learning module is intended for Tribal Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) directors, staff and/or leadership who would benefit from a high-level orientational look into the TANF program. The interactive module provides a basic overview of the Tribal TANF program covering topics such as the purposes of TANF, proper uses of TANF funds, TANF work requirements and time limits, as well as strategies for TANF program management and achieving program goals and objectives.
