

Indian Child Welfare:
Links Between Poverty &
Foster Care

SAFE STRONG SUPPORTIVE

casey family programs

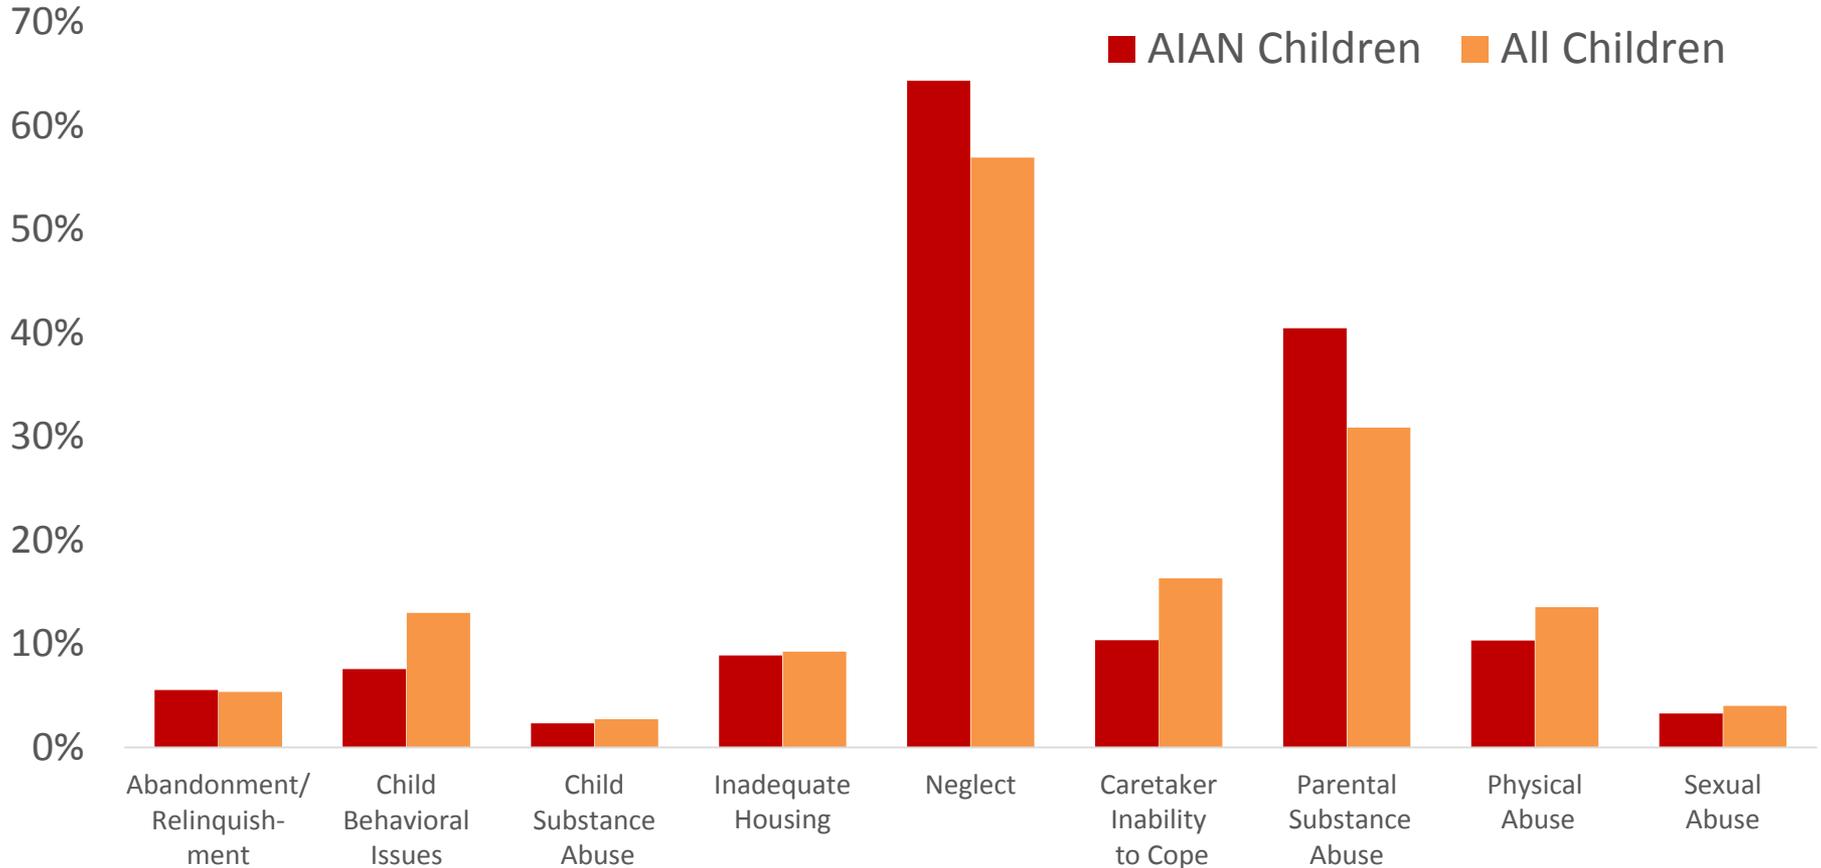

American Indian Children Entering Care FY05-FY13

Nationally, both the percent and number of American Indian children entering care began to steadily increase during FY10 and continued through FY13.

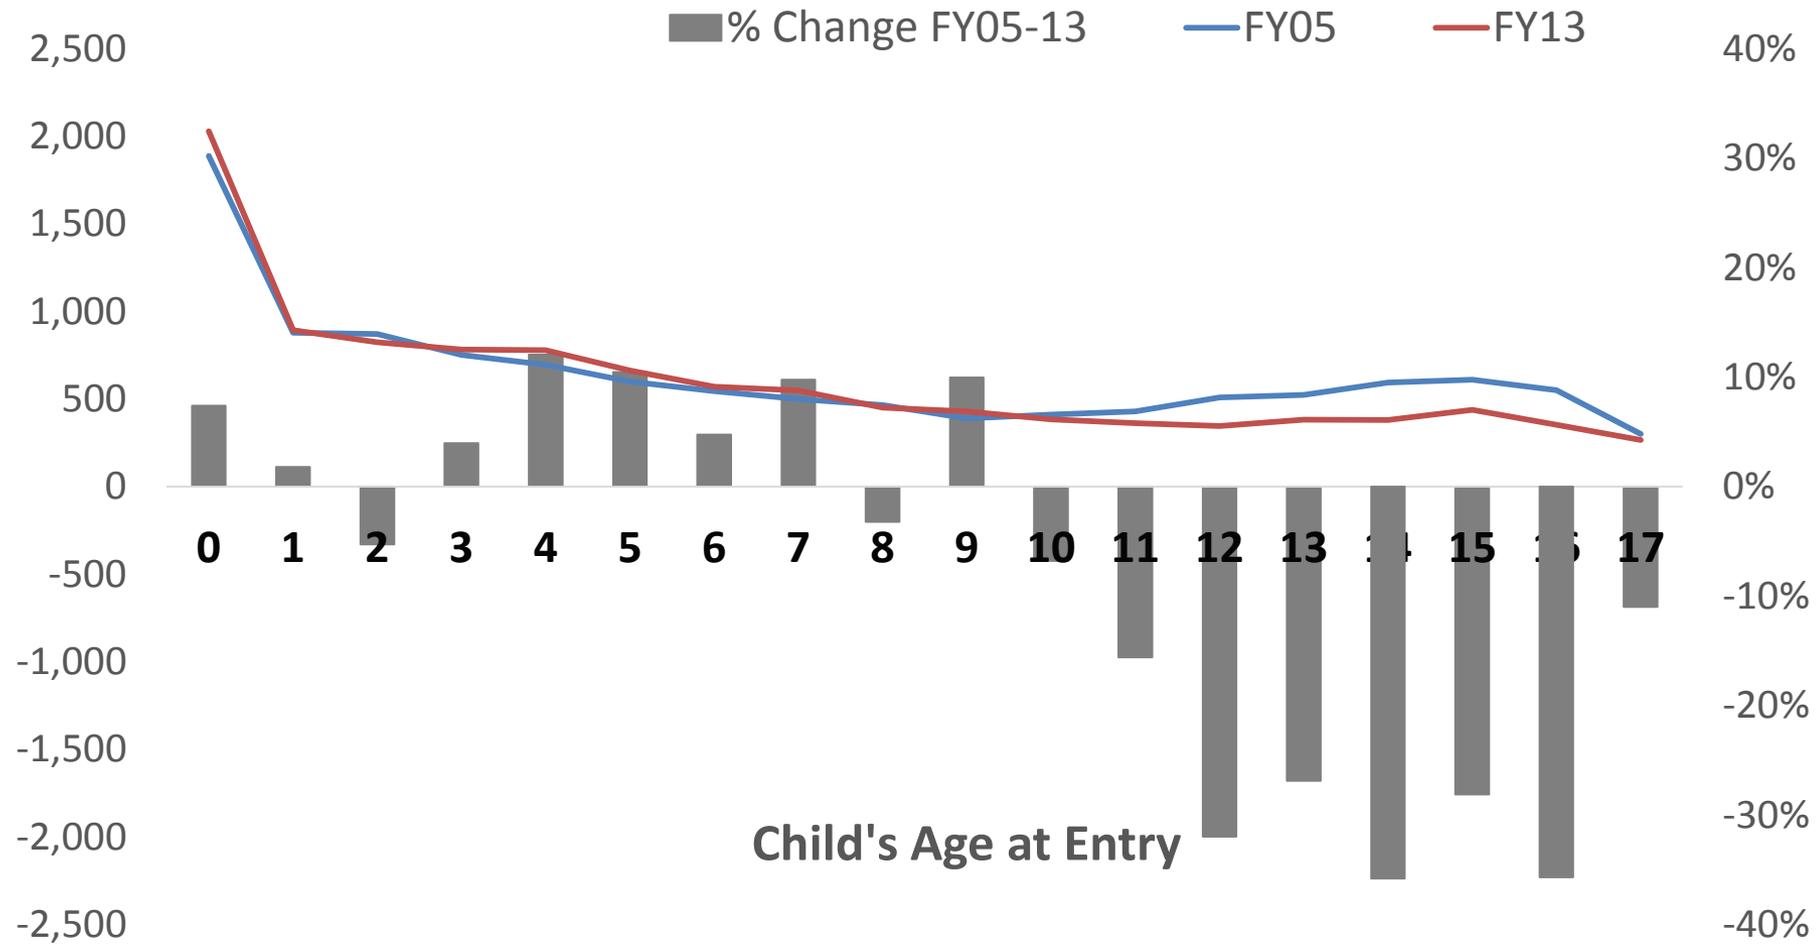

Reasons Children Enter Out-of-Home Care (FY13)

Neglect and parental substance abuse comprise the largest percent of reasons American Indian Children were removed from their homes.

American Indian Children Entering Care, by Age (FY05 to FY13)

Nationally the number of AIAN Children entering care increased for younger children.

SAFE STRONG SUPPORTIVE

FACTOR SYSTEMS SERVICES

safe children | strong families | supportive communities

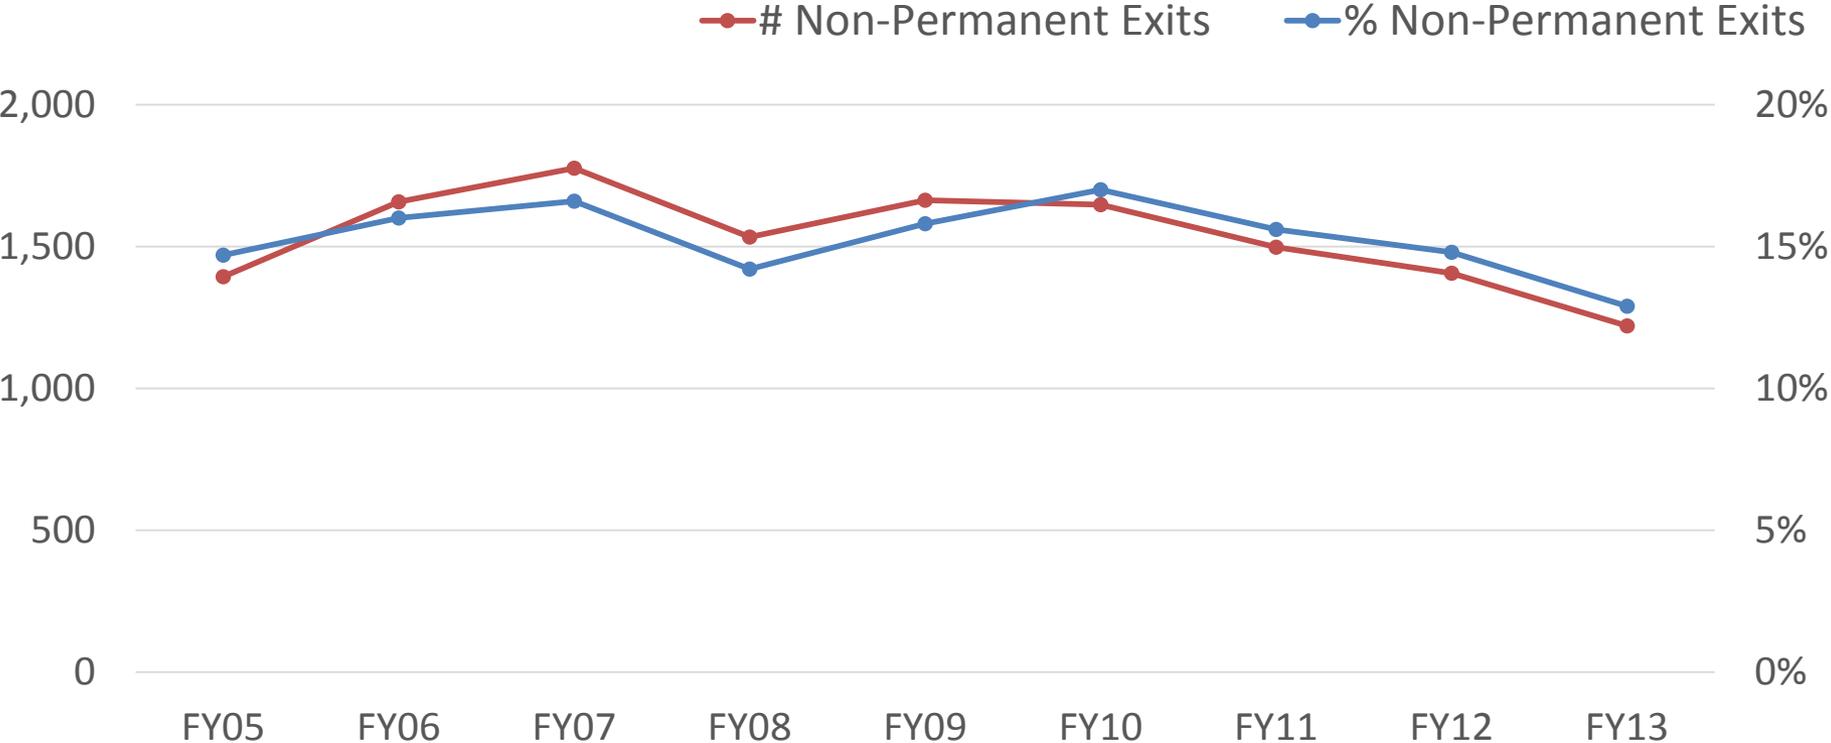

Percent of Children Entering Care, by Age and Race (FY13)

American Indian babies comprised a larger percentage of children entering care.

Number and Percent of American Indian Children with a Non-Permanent Exit (FY05-FY13)

A non-permanent exit includes youth aging out of care. During FY13, 13% (or 1,220 AIAN children) of American Indian youth, formerly in care, exited care without achieving permanency.

SAFE STRONG SUPPORTIVE

ANITA FINEDAY
afineday@casey.org