Robert Warwick is the Executive Director of the International Rescue Committee's (IRC's) Maryland's two Regional Offices in Baltimore and Silver Spring. He has worked overseas with refugees, internally displaced persons, and host communities for more than 20 years. His work with IRC includes serving as Country Director for Sudan and Democratic Republic of Congo programs, as Interim Country Director for Uganda, as well as Country Director for Eritrea and Northeast Sudan Programs. Mr. Warwick also served as the Interim Regional Director for the Suburban Washington Resettlement Center in 2007. Prior to working with IRC, he served as Country Director with the American Refugee Committee in Rwanda and Mozambique. He has also held posts at CARE Canada and Catholic Relief Services. In 1992, he founded, and continues to oversee, the Malawi Girls Education Program. Mr. Warwick completed graduate coursework in Public Policy and Planning at Virginia Tech University and holds a B.A. in Architecture from the University of Oregon.