The Family Services Team

seeks to strengthen each family's ability to maintain a supportive and stable home for their relative children by respecting what is unique within each family.

Read on to learn more about our services.

Family Services Team

The TANF child only program is designed to provide assistance to you for your relative child. If you are a grandparent/relative caregiver you may qualify to receive financial assistance through our program. In addition to financial assistance, we provide the following services:

Assistance with applying for Medicaid

Support Groups

Assistance with budgeting

Referrals to community organizations

Intergenerational Extracurricular activities

And so much more

There are many reasons children are living with their relatives. Relatives are important because they:

Provide a safe home

Enable children to live with people they know and trust

Allow family relationships to be maintained and flourish

Create life-long family traditions and memories

Build good foundations
